New workshops will boost business

PLANS to build more than 20 industrial workshops in Seaton are being drawn up by East Devon District Council (EDDC).

It is hoped that tenants should be able to move in no later than August 2015.

A decision to "support further business growth in Seaton" was taken by EDDC's Cabinet on Wednesday, November 27th.

Members agreed to authorise detailed design work to enable a planning application and market testing to take place.

Fourteen workshop units, ranging in size from 50 to 70 square metres, are planned at the Colyford Road Depot site.

Another seven, slightly larger units (70 to 84 square metres) are proposed on the Fosseyway Park land to the east of Lyme Bay Auction Rooms in Harepath Road.

According to EDDC, the units will be flexible in the way the space is used and will be suitable for a wide range of light industrial purposes or office-based service businesses.

Councillor Ian Thomas, Cabinet member for Economy and chairman of Seaton Regeneration Programme Board, said: "This is another example of the increased confidence in Seaton and forms part of our regeneration programme bringing further investment and jobs to the town."

Councillor Steph Jones, EDDC's Seaton Champion, added: "There is a positive feel in Seaton at the moment and it is important to capitalise on this by generating new business and jobs."

"This will ensure a revitalised town for residents and visitors to enjoy for years to come."

An EDDC spokesperson added: "To assess demand for the workshop space a marketing exercise will be undertaken in the New Year to inform the timetable for development."

"Subject to planning consent and securing funding, the workshops could be available for tenants by August 2015."

Bridport's Wild Camping Stoves Launch in USA

'It's great to see a local company formed in a West Country garage blossom into this vibrant international brand' of local shows, running workshops and demonstrating products - you may have seen them winning Small Trader of the Year at the Melplash Show. The company has strong links with local businesses & campsites, as well as locals and holiday-makers who explore West Dorset with a Wild Stove in their backpack.

Wild Stoves was set up by local scientist and entrepreneur Jonathan Rouse, building on a passion for the outdoors and a deep appreciation of wood as a fuel. He has spent the last decade working as an advisor on wood energy and stoves in Africa and Asia. 'In 2009 I was testing some stoves with women in Nigeria and had a light-bulb moment. I realised how great these stoves could be for camping in the UK' says Jonathan. On his return, over a few drinks with wife and friends, they came up with the name and concept of Wild Stoves. 'It's been hard work but rewarding and we now have a vibrant business and a strong team. It's great to see a local company, started in a West Country garage a few years ago, blossom into this vibrant international brand. We really feel we're doing something useful and valued, locally and globally.'

Wild Stoves also contributes to the Wild Stoves Foundation which supports projects in Africa helping those most in need access clean stoves.

AXMINSTER Traders unveil vision for future

AXMINSTER'S reinvigorated Chamber of Commerce has unveiled its vision for the future.

Newly-elected chairman Lisa Lyman chaired an open meeting at the Senior Citizen's Centre on Thursday evening when she revealed a number of new initiatives to boost trade and make Axminster a more lively town in which to work and live.

Mrs Lyman told the meeting, attended by around 20 people: "When you take the time to look at Axminster one of its greatest strengths is that it is full of wonderful small, independent businesses run by local people, many of whom come from families that have been here for generations.

"When Carpets went into administration, instead of falling apart, our community got stronger. We have many organisations all doing a great job, but it feels like no-one is dealing with those issues that make up our everyday conversation.

"The Chamber Committee have been working hard behind the scenes coming up with projects and getting the ball rolling. We are ready now (and excited) to invite you to join us and find ways to do something about those issues.

"We don't have a magic wand, we may not be able to resolve them all, but we are working hard to find ways to make improvements."

Among the initiatives the Chamber of Commerce would like to introduce are:

- u A request to Axminster Town Council to purchase flower baskets for businesses and residents to sponsor.

- u Setting up a maintenance team of volunteers to make sure the flowers and flower beds are kept healthy and to keep signs and pavements clean.

- u More flags decorated by different people and organisations with the suggestion that Axminster could create a world record for the most flags in one town.

- u Reforming the Christmas Lights Committee and have a major fundraising drive starting in January.

- u Upgrading the old blue services signs on the A35 and improving the "Welcome To Axminster" with flowers planted around them.

- u The possibility of more markets, perhaps on a Saturday morning, discussions having already taken place with "Lord of The Manor" Jim Rowe, who holds the market rights, with the possibility of a French Market coming to town on Saturday, December 14th.

- u More events to celebrate the history of Axminster, possibly an eight-day market to coincide with the "Glove Is Up" ceremony..

- u The creation of a new community-based website on Axminster.org with more information for visitors.

- u The production of a town guide after a lapse of three years, a project which is already underway and will be published in March.

From the editor's chair Axminster on the move

AXMINSTER has lived in the shadows of its neighbours for far too long.

Whilst it's never going to compete on an equal footing with its seaside neighbours, the town has much to offer - and things could be about to change.

Having covered Axminster for much of my near 50 years in journalism, I know better than most just how much goes on in the town. I've never subscribed to the view that "nothing ever happens in Axminster". It's never been the sleepy place some people make out.

People will always gravitate to the sea and neighbouring seaside towns, especially Lyme Regis, punch above their weight when it comes to attracting holidaymakers.

In recent times, Seaton also has really started to pull out the stops in selling its attractions.

Now it seems that Axminster is determined to show that it, too, has much to offer, with the Chamber of Commerce coming up with a number of initiatives that to show that there's more to the Carpet town than a weekly market.

The new thinking in the chamber is being led by recently elected chairman Lisa Lyman, who fronted an open meeting last week to outline some of their plans.

And their new executive committee are approaching their ambitions in a refreshing manner - "if the council can't do it, let's do it ourselves". A lot of what they are planning is not sophisticated marketing, but minor improvements like making the town more attractive with flower displays and organising events that perpetuate the town's history.

We report on these initiatives on page one and eight and may I also draw your attention also to page 14 where Axminster Heritage Centre is calling on the help of local residents and organisations to shape the future of this exciting project.

It's all part of the regeneration of Axminster town centre which many think is long overdue. But things are definitely moving and hopefully the whole town will get behind such initiatives.

OTTERY St MARY Hirst original on sale at auction

AN ORIGINAL sketch by the internationally renowned artist Damien Hirst is to sell at Ottery Auction Rooms.

Mr Hirst dedicated the sketch to the housekeeper at Chanters House, Samuel Taylor Coleridge's former residence, when he visited the town for the annual Tar Barrels event in 2001.

The hand-drawn piece shows a map of Europe on the face of a cube, with a message that reads: "For Col, it's a strange world. Love, Damien Hirst."

The 22cm by 27cm artwork has been verified by the Hirst Authentication Committee and will go into the Fine Art and Antique Sale at Ottery Auction Rooms on January 16th.

David Sumner, principal valuer at Ottery Auction Rooms, estimates that the sketch will sell for between £300 and £500, but said it had the potential to make a substantial amount more.

He said: "Items like this do not often come up for sale and it could make a considerable amount of money.

"A lot of people come through the door anyway but this will open us up to a completely different clientele."

Hirst is most famous for his series of artworks depicting animals preserved in formaldehyde. In 2008, Hirst's The Golden Calf sold for a record-breaking £10.3 million.

COLYTON Canal discovery

COLYTON Parish councillor Ken Clifford recently visited the Devon Record Office in Exeter, originally to look up the old course of the River Coly following flooding.

Instead, however, he came across 19th century plans for the huge canal, which would have been used to transport blue lias from Somerset, chalk and lime from Chard and Beer and Beer stone by water.

Following original proposals for a canal in 1792, noted civil engineer Thomas Telford carried out a survey in 1824 for a canal 15 feet deep, including 30 locks and a floating wooden harbour in Beer, to carry vessels of up to 200 tonnes.

The canal would have started in Stolford, near Weston-super-Mare, and passed through Ilminster, Chard, Tytherleigh, Axminster, Woodhaye Farm, Shute, Colyton, Seaton and finally to the new harbour at Beer, saving ships having to travel around Cornwall where several were wrecked. The canal would also pass through a tunnel to be created through White Cliffs at Seaton Hole, near Beer.

SEATON New workshops a boost to business

PLANS to build more than 20 industrial workshops in Seaton are being drawn up by East Devon District Council (EDDC).

It is hoped that tenants should be able to move in no later than August 2015.

A decision to "support further business growth in Seaton" was taken by EDDC's Cabinet on Wednesday, November 27th.

Members agreed to authorise detailed design work to enable a planning application and market testing to take place.

Fourteen workshop units, ranging in size from 50 to 70 square metres, are planned at the Colyford Road Depot site.

Another seven, slightly larger units (70 to 84 square metres) are proposed on the Fosseyway Park land to the east of Lyme Bay Auction Rooms in Harepath Road.

According to EDDC, the units will be flexible in the way the space is used and will be suitable for a wide range of light industrial purposes or office-based service businesses.

Councillor Steph Jones, EDDC's Seaton Champion, added: "There is a positive feel in Seaton at the moment and it is important to capitalise on this by generating new business and jobs.

"This will ensure a revitalised town for residents and visitors to enjoy for years to come."

HONITON Councillor calls for 20mph limit

A HONITON town councillor has called for 20mph speed restrictions to be enforced in High Street due to 'ridiculous' driving in the town centre.

Councillor Peter Corke voiced his concerns at a recent town council meeting (November 11th) and was supported by Councillor Cathryn Andrews who also called for a similar restriction in New Street.

Councillor Corke said: "I think it is very dangerous. I have listed nine reasons for requesting this but they are all pretty common sense items that are happening in High Street day after day.

"We have so many jay-walkers in High Street and sometimes they do not even bother to look left or right. If somebody comes blasting through at a ridiculous speed, pedestrians are likely to be killed. It is common knowledge.

"Smaller villages like Sidbury and Sidford have got 20mph speed limits. I think every town in the country should have these restrictions in place.

Councillor Corke also said that the pedestrian crossings in High Street should be adapted to help people with impaired hearing to cross safely.

He said: "The crossing by the post office is so quiet that people can hardly hear it. Any deaf person could easily be mowed down. The longer it goes on the more you think that someone will be killed before they do anything about it.

The issue has been postponed while the police gather further information on the possibility of a speed limit change. They are due to report back at the next town council meeting on Monday, December 9th.

Councillor Corke added: "Trying to get these things changed these days is like reaching for the moon but a number of councillors I have asked are in agreement with me. Hopefully by the time of the next council meeting we will know where we can go with this."

SIDMOUTH £250,000 for sport

RESIDENTS of Sidmouth, Sidbury, Sidford and Salcombe Regis are being invited to vote on how they would spend £250,000 for sports provision in the town.

An event will be held on Friday, December 6th to give people a chance to have their say on how they would spend the money during Sidmouth's late night shopping event, from 5pm until 8pm, near the Sidmouth Market and Christmas tree, opposite Fields department store.

The money has come from developers who have built new homes in the parish.

An appeal for ideas earlier this year produced a range of suggestions from Sidmouth Parish residents, organisations, voluntary and community groups. Those that were eligible for funding from the proposals now available for voting.

Former Seaton man given ASBO

A FORMER Seaton man has been given a two year Anti Social Behaviour Order after carrying out numerous acts of threatening and abusive behaviour in the Seaton area.

Robert Male, of no fixed abode, was handed the ASBO at Exeter Magistrates Court on November 18th after the court heard evidence of threats of violence, verbal abuse, urinating in a public place and intimidating and drunken behaviour on NHS premises.

The 30-year-old man received the following prohibitions as a result of the ASBO:

- i) He must not enter Powell Close, Seaton or Harepath Road, Seaton except when on public transport;
- ii) He must not remain on any NHS premises or GP surgery in the Devon having been asked to leave either by NHS staff or security staff;
- iii) He must not use abusive, insulting, offensive, threatening or intimidating language or behaviour in any public place.

This order will last for two years. If Mr Male breaches the order then he could be fined or sent to prison for up to five years.

Should anyone witness a breach of the above ASBO prohibitions by Mr Male, it is requested that they call the police on 101 or 999 in an emergency to report it.

PC Daz Norton, who is the local officer for Seaton, is extremely happy with the decision of the court.

Whilst gathering evidence against Male he heard many accounts from the public and local businesses about his behaviour. Working jointly with East Devon District Council and the NHS, Devon and Cornwall Police were able to present a case for the court to hear.

The Seaton and Axminster Local Policing Team and East Devon District Council work tirelessly to ensure members of the community are able to go about their lives free from this sort of behaviour.

It is hoped that this action is seen as a reminder to anyone who wishes to indulge in this type of behaviour that it will not be tolerated and action will be taken in order to ensure a safe and happy community.

"We are proud to be selected as this year's national firm of the year," said Curtis.

FATHER Christmas is booked to switch on the lights outside the Mariners' Hall at 6:30pm on Friday (December 6th).

Puffins get glowing report

PUFFINS pre-school in Beer has been given a glowing recommendation by the Ofsted inspectors.

Government officials made their inspection without warning in September, which was their first visit since May 2011. Their report underlined the success of the staff in working with children.

"We were very pleased with the report," said Annie Thorogood, who is the Puffins Pre-School office manager.

"There are four grades available and we had a very strong good."

The report outlines four areas in which Puffins had impressed, beginning with praise for the experienced staff and the way they supported the children in their learning and development.

Secondly, the inspectors said Puffins had a strong relationship with the Church of England Primary School next door and that helped smooth the path for children moving on to school.

The report also said that 'children have a welcoming and safe environment in which to play' and 'the staff have a good rapport with the children and know all the children very well' and, finally, the children are eager to learn and concentrate well at their tasks.

The report also commended the use of the garden at Puffins: 'They are supported very well to learn about nature and how things grow, such as sunflowers and what will happen next. Children enjoy picking herbs squeezing them in their hands to release their smell.'

The only negative comment, and one which denied Puffins from receiving the highest outstanding commendation, was that 'children do not always have a variety of resources to use outside to support them as they explore and investigate.'

"Overall it was a very good report," added Thorogood.

■ EVERYONE at Puffin's Pre-School in Beer helped the recent Children in Need appeal by making Pudsey bear biscuits and dressing up in wild and wacky clothes. They raised just under £35. The children have also been busy helping children who aren't as lucky as them. They did so by filling six boxes with gifts for Operation Christmas Child, which provides less fortunate children with gifts throughout the world. Many EAST Devon District Council (EDDC) is supporting Small Business Saturday on December 7th by charging a maximum of £2 in its pay and display car parks.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "Customers are encouraged to park in any East Devon car park with a heavily discounted (from 10am) offer on Saturday, December 7th for a maximum daily charge of just £2.

"Their pay and display ticket will then also be valid for re-use (if needed) in any other EDDC pay and display car park for the remainder of that day."

The initiative is part of a parking package also including Golden Ticket "lottery".

The spokesperson said: "During the lead up to Christmas, we will be planting a total of 24 Golden Ticket in some of the pay and display machines in EDDC-operated car parks.

"These golden tickets will be exchanged for a special parking permit entitling the winners to park one nominated vehicle without payment (but subject to all other terms and conditions specified in the Parking Places Order) in any EDDC pay and display car park during the period commencing January 1st 2014 and ending March 31st 2014."

In addition, there are also some town-specific offers.

Canaan Way Car Park in Ottery charged a daily maximum of £1 on Saturday, November 30th, and the same offer will apply in Dolphin Street Car Park, Colyton, on Wednesday December 4th (tickets not transferable to other car parks).

About Sidmouth, the spokesperson explained: "Sidmouth shoppers might like to know that, if they feel up for a bit of gentle festive exercise, there is ample free parking available at Knowle on every Saturday and Sunday in the run-up to Christmas, with the added benefit of a pleasant stroll into town through Knowle Gardens.

Avoid a Christmas debt hangover

AT the Citizens Advice Bureau we are acutely aware that many of you are currently finding it difficult to manage on low incomes, or on benefits, leaving little or no money to spare to cope with the additional financial pressures of Christmas.

Christmas is a time of giving, but you don't want to give yourself a headache with debts and bills you can't afford in the New Year. It's therefore very important to plan and budget for Christmas, so here are a few tips:

- Plan Christmas – be realistic on what you can afford and budget accordingly. Manage expectations as to what you can spend.
- Don't forget everyday bills – remember that rent, mortgage, utility bills, food bills and any other existing debts still have to be paid. Even though it's Christmas, get your priorities right.

- Keep things simple – try to keep within what you can afford. Avoid funding your spending using high interest credit, or to exceed your overdraft limit, both of which in the longer term could prove to be very costly.

- Be organised, make a list - don't shop on impulse, make a shopping list, decide on how much you can afford to spend on each person and stick to it!

- Try a present pact – make a 'no unnecessary present pact' with family and friends.

- Shop Around – try as many different places as possible to find the best deals.

- Christmas Cards – whilst everyone appreciates receiving these, you don't have to send them every year, people will understand. Alternatively, make your own and deliver as many as possible to avoid postage.

- Don't buy too much – everyone wants to put on a good spread at Christmas, but don't buy too much food that won't get eaten. Better still, if you are hosting a party with family or friends, get them to bring a dish or two to share

- Start planning a saving for next Christmas – once Christmas is over it's worth looking at what went well and what didn't. Learn from your mistakes and start planning for next year.

If you find yourself in financial difficulty due to debt or need help with budget management, the Citizens Advice Bureau can offer you free, independent, confidential and impartial advice in Honiton, Seaton, Ottery St Mary and Axminster. ## Annabel wins place in final AXMINSTER girl Annabel Davies has qualified for the Grand Final of the Open Mic UK (U16 category) following a rendition of Titanium, by David Guetta, at the NEC in Birmingham.

Woodroffe student Annabel, 12, took to the stage last after her 26 rivals had had their opportunities to shine and her performance was met with thunderous applause.

Her mother Sue said: "She had travelled up to Birmingham's NEC in a bus with her fans."

"A couple were so keen that despite missing the bus, they got their dad to drive them there from Exmouth."

"Annabel has been performing around the area all summer and autumn; frequently appearing at the many local open-mic sessions and various events including Guitars on the Beach and the Lyme Regis Folk Festival. The Grand Final was to have been at London's O2 Arena but is now scheduled to take place at the NEC on the January 18th.

"Anneli and Craig Davies (no relation) from Big Red Youth Theatre in Ottery, said it was fantastic to see one of their long-term students having great success."

They both added: "In every performance she has shown what an amazing singing talent she is."

"We are hoping all of the students will be on the coach to the final to support Annabel. We are very proud."

Open Mic UK 2013 is a music competition searching for the UK's best singers, singer/songwriters, rappers and vocalists of all genres who perform either covers or original material.

Modest Alan receives his Arctic Star medal

An Axminster man who has been awarded The Arctic Star insists he is not a hero.

Alan Bird is among thousands of World War II veterans belatedly rewarded for taking part in dangerous missions in the Arctic.

Mr Bird joined the Navy in the early 1940s and would spend a large part of World War II aboard HMS Dido, a light cruiser.

The vessel was part of Arctic convoys travelling to and from Murmansk, Soviet Union, from Scapa Flow, Scotland, protecting merchant ships. He came through it unscathed, but recalled: "Every day there was an incident. You were at action stations all the time."

By Anders Larsson

"Norway was occupied and Germany controlled the bases there and we were handy for them to target."

"They had a habit of it."

Real heroes

He is very modest about the part he played himself, though, saying: "I'm no hero or anything."

"I just happened to be there at that time."

"The people who served in the Merchant Navy were the real heroes."

"If it hadn't been for the Merchant Navy there would have been no food in this country."

After convoy duties, Mr Bird and HMS Dido travelled south and arrived in Copenhagen just after liberation in May 1945.

On May 9th, they accepted the surrender of German cruisers Prinz Eugen and Nürnberg at Copenhagen.

Mr Bird, who hails from Middlesbrough, left the Navy in the late 40s and worked for BT until retirement. He moved to Axminster with his wife Joan about 20 years ago.

...and now – Alan Bird and the Arctic Star

The Arctic Star is a retrospective award, coming nearly 70 years after the end of the war.

Following an independent medal review in 2012, it was decided that the Arctic Star and Bomber Command Clasp should be given in recognition of the great bravery of those who contributed to two very significant campaigns of World War Two.

■ PLANNING: Rotarian Martin King briefs president Ian Crawford and Bernie Styles about the forthcoming event

All set for Festive Friday

ROTARIANS have put in place plans to welcome Christmas to Axminster during Festive Friday on December 6th.

It is hoped Minster Square will be packed when proceedings get under way at 5pm.

A mix of entertainment will be provided until 5.30pm, when mayor Jeremy Walden and Lord of the Manor Jim Rowe are set to switch on the lights on Minster Green.

The entertainment will then resume until 6.05pm, when Santa is set to arrive.

Rotary Club of Axminster has been planning and running the event for a few years since taking over from Axminster Chamber of Commerce, and organisers say the event and its various attractions will run until approximately 7.30pm.

■ MEMBERS of 1st Axminster Rainbows celebrated Bonfire Night by cooking marshmallows and playing with sparklers. The girls are aged from five to seven years and would welcome more members.

More information is available on 01297 32342 and online at www.girlguiding.org.uk/interested

■ AXE Valley Community College has formally kicked-off its artificial pitch fundraising campaign with county councillor Andrew Moulding and headteacher Martin Smith in attendance.

The full-size artificial football pitch will boast what is known as third generation surface and come with floodlights, at a total estimated cost of up to £600,000.

It will be located on the college sports field, managed by Leisure East Devon and available for hire outside of college hours.

College officials are in the process of preparing major grant applications from organisations like The Football Foundation, for example.

But a slice of the money will need to be raised locally, which is why the college is setting up a dedicated fundraising page at LocalGiving.com for campaign details and online donations.

Headteacher Martin Smith hopes construction of the pitch can start in summer or autumn 2014.

The construction phase will take about 12 weeks.

End of season celebrations at Axe Yacht Club

NEARLY 100 of the 800 members of the long established Axe Yacht Club assembled for the end of sailing season prize giving night in the clubhouse alongside the beach on November 23rd.

To start the evening, Commodore Gordon Wright welcomed everyone and paid particular tribute to Amanda Parker and her band of adult supervisors for encouraging and training cadets in the 7-17 age group.

There was delight on the faces of the many youngsters that came to receive their prizes, and it was clear that they were all very proud of their achievements on the River Axe and out to sea in Seaton Bay.

A new special prize for the best cadet of the season – the Lysander Trophy – was presented to the club by Julie Noble, in memory of the late Flight Lieutenant Jasper Meriam RAF.

A former member of the club, Flt Lt Meriam flew Westland Lysander aircraft delivering special agents to the French resistance on moonlit nights during World War II.

The first recipient of the trophy named in his honour was Charlotte Thompson, who has displayed a fantastic amount of determination throughout the season.

After a delicious dinner organised by Rear Commodore Social, Kevin Mercer, it was the adults' turn.

Caroline Lavender, wife of the club's president, presented the prizes which had been polished to perfection personally by Rear Commodore Richard Mayo, to the well deserving recipients.

A very enjoyable evening concluded with club member Shirli Austin singing to music provided by Steve Smith to enable some pretty lively dancing.

New homes get thumbs up from locals

BEER residents got their first chance to see the ambitious plans to build seven new homes in the village on Sunday.

The Beer Community Land Trust (CLT) hosted an open session allowing access to the land on the road leading to Beer Quarry Caves and Branscombe with East Devon

by Kevin Fahey

District Councillor Geoff Pook and Beer Parish Council's Martin Richards on hand to show how the plans would be put into practice.

"We have had a steady flow of people all morning and there has been a lot of interest and excellent feedback," said Councillor Pook.

"It has been a good exercise for local people to come along and see things for real rather than just drawings."

The reaction from local residents was also very positive and it is clear that demand for one of the affordable homes – with the present level of funding, five of the seven properties will now be reserved for local people – will be over-subscribed.

"There are so many young families in need for this type of housing," said Daniel Gribble, who was born and bred in Beer.

Mr Gribble currently lives with partner Shelly Hales and their two children in a two-bedroom house in Short Furlong, which is also an affordable home in the village.

"We are hoping to move to a three-bedroom home and then that would free up our current house for another young couple in the village," added Daniel.

"In that way homes can rotate around for local people."

Tom and Emily Gladstone were also interested viewers of the site and fully supported the plans of the CLT.

"This would give us our first foot on the ladder as that is very hard to do these days," said Tom Gladstone, who was also born in Beer.

"It is a great project for the village and will help keep young people in Beer."

Work has already begun in clearing the site with the first priority to build a bat house to 're-home' the bats currently living in the old sheds on the site.

The Beer CLT was set up at the start of the year to facilitate the development of affordable housing for local people with the slogan 'owned by the community, for the community'.

The CLT was granted a £1million loan via East Devon District Council to help fund the project and more recently a £170,000 grant from the Homes and Communities Agency.

Colyton could have been a very different place

LOCAL HISTORY FEATURE By Francesca Evans

EAST DEVON could have looked a very different place if civil engineers of the 1800s pulled off ambitious plans for a canal from Stolford in Somerset to Beer.

Colyton parish councillor Ken Clifford recently visited the Devon Record Office in Exeter, originally to look up the old course of the River Coly following flooding, but instead he came across 19th century plans for the huge canal, which would have been used to transport blue lias from Somerset, chalk and lime from Chard and Beer and Beer stone by water.

Following original proposals for a canal in 1792, noted civil engineer Thomas Telford carried out a survey in 1824 for a canal 15 feet deep, including 30 locks and a floating wooden harbour in Beer, to carry vessels of up to 200 tonnes. The canal would have started in Stolford, near Weston-super-Mare, and passed through Ilminster, Chard, Tytherleigh, Axminster, Woodhaye Farm, Shute, Colyton, Seaton and finally to the new harbour at Beer, saving ships having to travel around Cornwall where several were wrecked. The canal would also pass through a tunnel to be created through White Cliffs at Seaton Hole, near Beer.

William Hanning was chairman of the company leading the project and Sir William Pole of Shute and Lord Rolle of Bicton were the main financial backers, owning most of the land along the proposed route, which would provide revenue for their investment.

Infamous smuggler Jack Rattenbury, from Beer, who was employed by Lord Rolle on his estate at the time, was sent to London to give evidence about the sea conditions of Lyme Bay before permission was granted for the project. He enjoyed a daily allowance for three weeks in the capital city before a decision was made.

An Act of Parliament in 1825 gave permission for the canal to be built, with the government also offering an £80,000 loan with four per cent interest for 19 years. Subscribers paid a further £43,000, reaching the total of £123,000 for the East Devon section of the canal. The entire project from Somerset to Beer was estimated to cost £1,712,844 and would bring in £15,245 a year in profit.

However, the proposals were eventually scrapped and the canal never built. It is thought that great storms in 1826 damaged the initial structure of the wooden harbour at Beer, discouraging those leading the project from taking it any further.

Councillor Clifford said: "It would even today be a massive undertaking before considering the financial implications. Our forebears of those days seemed to love a challenge and a positive can-do attitude prevailed in Britain during these times." He added that it was a shame that the project could not be pulled off, as it would have boosted today's tourism industry in the area.

■ PLANS for the floating 'Asylum Harbour' at Beer Head, later damaged in a great storm (provided by Norman Lambert), and left, a map showing the route of the canal through Colyton (in red)

■ COLYTON Grammar School's U19, U16 and U14 netball teams represented the East Devon area at the recent county netball finals, held at Exeter University. All teams played a high standard of netball and did well in their sections. The U14 team (pictured above) made the semi-finals and had a tough match against West Buckland School from North Devon, which they eventually lost. They were therefore placed third in the county behind West Buckland and Blundell's.

VW camper vandalised after unwell driver parked on double yellow lines

■ MAYBE you are jealous of my disabled parking badge in the window of my red VW camper.

It recently has been parked across the road from Knight and Maiden in Fore Street, Seaton, on double yellow lines, as I was taken ill four days ago). I immediately rang council explaining and apologising again.

M.E. symptoms are chronic mental and physical debility, brain fog, hellish viral attack sometimes lasting days, weeks or months. Today (Saturday, November 30th), I finally improved, so retrieved it and reparked again.

It had been vandalised (again)! Eggs thrown on windscreen, false photocopied fines stuck on, other times scratched, mirrors broken ripped off, etc.

I am trying my best to live a normal life which others take for granted. My pension leaves me with no savings for all this extra work to keep it on the road to visit friends.

You are very welcome to my way of life.

MARION ANDREWS,
Cross Street, Seaton

Search for information on old gasworks

■ COULD any Pulman's View readers help?

I have recently moved to Seaton, now resident in Harbour Road. I am compiling a history of my new home and its surroundings.

Visits to the town's museum have been very helpful but I am anxious to find out more about the gasworks which stood, I believe, where Harcombe's yard is now.

Any dates (opening, closing) and pictures would be much appreciated. Likewise for the town's electricity supply in the early days. Thank you very much.

Cancer Research UK event raised £1,946

■ A HUGE thank you, as always, to the wonderful supporters, helpers and customers who helped raise another wonderful amount for the Axmouth and Seaton branch of Cancer Research UK, namely £1,946.66.

I would also like to thank the many individuals and businesses who donated prizes and gifts for our tombola and raffle.

The continuing generosity of the people of our little towns never fails to amaze and to warm the heart.

With NIGEL SPELLER

IN February when Pope Benedict XVI became the first modern pontiff to resign, the omens for the Catholic church did not appear good, but as we now know, Pope Francis, as the little-known Argentinian became, has proved to be a revelation and, after a few short months, has revitalised his church.

Attendances particularly are up and a survey of 12 Catholic cathedrals suggests an increase in attendance of about 20 per cent over last year. Reports indicate that some who stayed away are returning, others are new converts.

Inevitably, the result of the latest Anglican General Synod vote regarding women bishops remains high in church minds. With 378 votes in favour at the latest debate it prepares the way for the necessary legislation in favour to be pursued. This amounts to seeking final agreement to the proposals by the General Synod Revision Committee. However, the vote is not the end of the matter, as the principle regarding women bishops was approved by the General Synod in 2008, but matters of detail still have to be resolved.

One Bishop reported that the train is on the track and has some distance to go, but we can see the end of the journey, probably in 2015, at the earliest.

Seasonal events in our part of East Devon are well covered by the local media, but here is a selection: Combe Raleigh's bell ringers hold a Christmas Fayre by Candlelight on Saturday, December 7th from 2.30pm to 5pm in the church. Crafts, wreaths, cards, calendars and handmade decorations, plus mince pies will be on offer with proceeds for the Combe Raleigh bell restoration and augmentation.

Ottery's Parish Church will be holding the following: Advent carols on December 1st at 6.30pm; Hospiscare's Service of Light on December 4th at 7.30pm; Messy Church 4pm to 6pm on December 9th.

The Catholic Women's Group hosts Ecu- menical Carols followed by nibbles at St Anthony's on December 10th at 7.30pm. The speaker will be Rosemarie Stapley, a mid- wife who works in India.

At Colyton, St Andrew's Christmas Tree Festival opens on Wednesday, December 4th 11am to 9pm; Thursday and Friday 10am to 4pm; Sat 10am to 3pm with stalls and refreshments.

On Thursday, December 5th Axminster Church Rooms are open for coffee in aid of the Rainbow under 5s playgroup. On Friday, December 6th at about 6.15pm at Sidmouth Town Centre (Market Place) comes Sid- mouth Lions Santa.

A sample from one of Honiton's eight churches is the Christian Aid Big Sing on Sunday, December 15th at 6pm in the Methodist Church, Chapel Street. Refresh- ments afterwards and a collection for refugees in Syria.

Also further ahead, Christmas Music at Seaton Town Hall devised by musical direc- tor Peter Milmer entitled "The Holly and the Ivy" is on December 15th at 4pm with tick- ets at the Town Hall, with a bar for refresh- ments.

Stop press: St Gregory's Church Seaton Freedom Café has been awarded £3,000 from Lloyds Community Fund as also has Musbury Moles Pre School.

THE PROJECT SO FAR...

THE name of Axminster is associated throughout the world with carpets yet there is nowhere in the town that properly celebrates this. Axminster Heritage Ltd, a registered charity, was formed to rectify this shortcoming.

With the help of a grant from Devon County Council we acquired Thomas Whitty House in Silver Street in May 2012. This is where Thomas Whitty started his carpet manufacturing in 1755.

Funds were then raised to enable the first and second floors to be renovated to provide five letting offices for local small businesses and a community/function room and a small kitchen. The official opening was at the end of September.

The purpose of Phase 1 was to ensure that sufficient income is generated from the rent income from the offices and the hire charges from the community/function room to cover the costs of maintaining the building whilst the Trustees and committee members embark on a major fund raising effort to realise an ambitious community project

The Town Museum will be relocated into these larger premises so as to better tell the history of Axminster and especially its world famous carpet industry.

The Centre, which is to have the historic carpets as its centrepiece, will be a modern interactive attraction appealing to all ages.

The Tourist Information Centre will also be relocated into the same building which is to include a café and small shop. The old dye house at the rear will be restored to provide a venue for local crafts.

This development will be a major step in the regeneration of the centre of Axminster and we now want to give residents, local schools and businesses a chance to have their say on this exciting project which will be for the benefit of all those who live and work in and around Axminster.

John Church

Joshua's Harvest

Joshua's Celebrates 25 years in business

Joshua's Harvest Store near Ottery first opened its doors just before Christmas 1988. Joshuas were pioneers in sourcing food locally and were awarded Best Food Shop in Britain by Country Living magazine in 1991.

Joshuas has remained true to its roots offering clean and healthy food in a special and relaxed environment and provides an alternative to supermarket culture and values in East Devon. Joshua's won the first ever Best Specialist Food Shop Award by Devon Life in 2004 and has earned a fine collection of Great Taste Awards for their own produce too.

Over the years the business has grown and these days makes a great outing with its own very popular cafe, great range of goods including kitchen ware and ideas for the home, and of course lots of homemade and delicious healthy food. For many it's the first place to visit for Christmas shopping too, with an exceptional variety of unusual gift ideas.

At the heart of the business are their busy kitchens making bread cakes and ready meals and other delicious baking that keep customers coming back for more. Making and selling natural food is a passion for the team and it shows, as you will see on a visit there.

Still in the same family since these humble beginnings, the company has flourished and employs many local people. Customers come from far and wide and many have been regulars since the early days and have watched the business thrive and grow. Their values have stayed the same but the business has also changed with the times.

Mark Essame founder said "We are very proud to have been serving so many of you over the years and being able to share and contribute to Devon being such a special place to live. We wanted to provide something good for the local community and are pleased to know that our very first customer still shops with us today!"

Lions support for Philippines appeal

AT their recent club meeting the Seaton and District Lions Club agreed to send a donation of £500 toward the relief effort in the Philippines.

The money will be allocated to the fund to supply Lifesaver Water Treatment units. Each unit costs in the order of £190 and will be able to supply an average family, clean pure water for about four years before the filtration element has to be changed.

Past International Director Lion Phil Nathan received an overnight email from International President Lion Barry Palmer regarding the Philippines. IP Barry was onsite and after making an initial assessment of how Lions could best help in the short term, he made enquiries about the water "Lifesaver" project which he had seen at Conventions in Hamburg and Istanbul.

Lions Chief Executive had been put on the case and has already bought a pallet of 56 water filtration systems from "Lifesavers" currently held in stock in the UK. They are being transported for distribution by local identified leaders.

This was then matched by District A to send a further 56 with funds already raised. Lions in the South West are currently fundraising for more Lifesaver Units.

From the Presidents' team it appears that this product is ideally suited to providing lifesaving relief, a constant supply of desperately needed drinkable water.

"Lifesavers" has immediately available 1,000 units and all have a Lions Logo and marked as "A gift from the Lions Clubs of British Isles & Ireland". £190 buys one jerry can.

Lions Council of Governors has given approval to launch a Multiple District appeal for funds for Lifesaver units.

The Immediate Past International President, Wayne Madden who is the Chairman of the Lions Clubs International Foundation (LCIF) has provided the following report: "Thank you, Lions for the immediacy of your response to the devastating typhoon in the Philippines. With LCIF's disaster relief fund, the Foundation was able to provide US$130,000 to the Lions of the Philippines instantly. And within less than one day, the Lions of OSEAL (Organisation of South East Asia Lions) donated US$370,000 towards relief efforts while gathered at a forum in Singapore.

"It took ONE DAY for our organization to mobilize US$500,000 for disaster relief in the Philippines. That is amazing. And, we continue to receive donations to LCIF disaster relief.

"Thank you for your support. Every donation, no matter the size, provides help.

"Our hearts go out to everyone in the Philippines. Being able to provide a meal, clean water and necessary medicine to those in need can make a huge difference.

"LCIF is able to help local Lions meet these immediate needs thanks to your donations. As the damage is assessed, Lions and LCIF will also assist with the long-term rebuilding of communities.

"Lions are truly everywhere, and do everything when it comes to service. In the past month.

"Everything the Lions Clubs International Foundation does, it does for people in need. From measles vaccinations to disaster relief and everything in between, Lions are the reason why our Foundation is one of the most trusted foundations worldwide."

Festive floral arrangements

IT was a warm welcome back on November 26th to Clare Foley who is well known to Sidmouth Flower Arrangement Club members.

They always enjoy her bold arrangements and lively personality. The theme this time was "All I Want for Christmas".

She started with a hollowed out Yule log which was laid lengthways and filled with traditional Christmas foliage, big dark red roses and beautiful bright red amaryllis as her focal point.

A smaller arrangement at a higher level trailing ivy completed the picture. It would look wonderful in an old stone fireplace.

As Clare pointed out Christmas is not all traditional these days, and children often ask for electronic toys so Clare depicted this idea with a modern vertical piece using silver sprayed dried streptococcus flowers and magenta gerberas arranged on two wire frames.

To complete the look she added a little monster toy that flashed and whizzed, much to everyone's amusement.

Luxury "Mink and Diamonds" was depicted by freesias, white roses and Singapore orchids spilling out of a sparkly box on top of a plinth wrapped with a white fur stole.

Lime green foliage set off the flowers very elegantly.

After all the business and excitement of the festival Clare finished with two more peaceful aspects of Christmas.

"Rest and Relaxation", using cushions, green and cream colouring flowing down from a tall glass container giving the impression of an oasis.

Finally came an Ali Baba pot with striking gold and green palm leaves, beautiful white lilies and anthuriums giving an exotic middle eastern feel.

Despite battling a cold, the brave demonstrator kept members amused with stories and experiences and was given a very enthusiastic thank you at the end.

There is no meeting in December and in January five talented members will each demonstrate which is sure to be good fun.

The Wool Stack

Here at The Wool Stack we like to think that we are an old-fashioned wool shop with a bit of a modern twist. We have a wide range of yarn, from basic 100% acrylic, up to Manos Silk Blend and Artesano wools, with lots in between.

King Cole, Stylecraft and James C Brett wools feature heavily in our stock as well as smaller ranges of Debbie Bliss, Sirdar and Rowan wools. We are always on the lookout for something a bit different; or indeed experimenting and creating something out of the ordinary with conventional items.

We have thousands of patterns and buttons; the range is increasing all the time and we stock Knit Pro and Pony knitting needles and crochet hooks, along with a good range of yarn-related haberdashery.

Christmas Wishes to all our customers and wishing you all a 'Knitty' New Year! Many thanks for all your support in our first year, Sara, Austin and Harwey

Royal Oak Farm

Oak Farm is a stunning example of a quintessentially English tea room and a gorgeous farm shop packed to the brim with produce grown and meat reared within just a few miles.

Nestling among Devon's stunning Blackdown Hills, Royal Oak Farm offers a true taste of the West Country.

Open year-round Royal Oak Farm takes on a new magical charm in the winter. Locals buy their Christmas trees and many essential elements of the all-important dinner, including Christmas poultry, turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens.

Hearty dishes such as casserole or shepherds pie, and delicious mince pies are all served in the 17th century tea room, complete with original exposed beams and warmth from the inglenook fireplace.

Once you've had your fill in the tea room, a trip to the farm shop will have you dreaming about dinner. Talented local cooks contribute to the wide variety of cakes, biscuits and treats on offer, along with frozen 'ready meals' made with local produce and incredibly succulent meat reared on the surrounding farms. An array of fresh fruit and vegetables, locally made bread and other essentials such as milk and eggs ensures the farm is a true community hub.

Royal Oak Farm is something of an institution in the area, loved by the locals but also attracting a loyal customer base from far further afield, as illustrated in the guest-book which bulges with praise from happy customers.

How to roast turkey perfectly

A generous smear of butter and a few onions are all that are necessary in this easy recipe.

Ingredients:

100g/3½oz butter, softened
2 tsp sea salt
2 tsp freshly ground black pepper
4.5kg/10lb turkey, with giblets removed and cavity wiped clean
3 large onions, halved

Method:

The bird should be prepared the night before. Mix the butter with the salt and freshly ground black pepper, then season the cavity of the bird.

Rub the butter mix all over the turkey. Fold a large piece of greaseproof paper to double thickness and lay over the breast to protect it during the cooking.

Leave it in the fridge overnight.

On the day you wish to serve the bird heat the oven to 220C/430F/Gas 7.

Take the turkey out of the fridge and allow it to come to room temperature while the oven is heating up.

Put the onions in a large roasting tray. Put the turkey on a trivet or wire rack in the tray.

Pour one cup of boiling water into the cavity of the bird and seal with a skewer. Pour two cups of boiling water into the bottom of the tin, then cover the whole thing with two layers of foil, making sure it is well sealed around the edges.

Cook for 20 minutes, then reduce the temperature to 200C/400F/Gas 6.

After 1½ hours, remove the foil and greaseproof paper.

Cook for a further 40 minutes and don't open the oven door until the cooking time is up.

To test whether the turkey is cooked, insert a skewer or knife blade into the point where the thigh joins the breast - the juice should run clear.

If it is pink, cook it for another 20 minutes and test again. Leave the turkey to rest in a warm place for at least 15 minutes before carving.

Strain the juice from the bottom of the tin into a large jug - the fat will rise to the top, leaving the aromatic turkey and onion beneath.

Skim off the fat use the juices to make a gravy or serve as it is.

❄ Apple Tree Galleries

APPLE Tree Galleries supports over 70 local artists and crafters in three large galleries. It's much larger inside than it looks from the outside! We are a showcase for the work of talented amateur and semi-professional artists and crafters from the South West area, but mostly from around Axminster.

Our original artwork comes in a huge variety of styles, mediums, subjects and sizes. As for crafts, well we have just about everything! We have a fantastic array of fused and stained glass, practical and decorative pottery, ironwork, textiles galore including clothing, jewellery for every age and style, mirrors large and small and as for wood, from key-rings to furniture.

Our popular Coffee Lounge supports The Coffee Factory in Seaton Junction, Tregothnan Tea grown in Cornwall, and cakes by local baker Kerri Sponge. Our music is composed by Neil H in Yarcombe. We are all about keeping it local.

We are very happy to be a part of Small Business Saturday and encourage all residents to support their local businesses not just on December 7th but every day to keep Axminster a thriving town centre. There is so much available on your doorstep, why shop anywhere else!

❄ Wells Carpets

SINCE 1983, Wells Carpet Brokers have helped customers in the South West save money. We have one of the largest selections of carpets & vinyls in the area and have the all the latest trends too.

We are able to compete with the large national stores as our overheads are low and we do not inflate our prices to take a discount off. Our prices are genuinely low all year round. So there's no need to wait for the sales either! In most comparisons we do with other stores, on identical products, we will be cheaper.

We deal with all the leading carpet manufacturers including Brintons, Ulster & Cormar using 100% or 80% wool, 20% Nylon but we also have budget man-made ranges including bleach cleanable carpets! We also supply Crucial Trading's Sisal, Coir & Seagrass ranges. These can also be made into any size rug that you can customise with your own choice of borders. So why not come along & design your own rug?

Kamdean has become very popular since we started selling it in 1990. Again it is a product in which you can use your own artistic flair & design to create your own unique floor using the available design pieces or just simply lay the wood planks or tiles as they are.

So don't be put off by our smart appearance! We have prices to suit everyone.

SMALL BUSINESS SATURDAY 7TH DECEMBER

SMALL Business Saturday is all about encouraging everyone in the UK to 'shop local' and support small businesses in their communities, both on the day and beyond.

This year will see the first Small Business Saturday in the UK, held on one of the busiest shopping days of the year - the first Saturday in December.

It is traditionally an American shopping holiday held on the Saturday after Thanksgiving. The initiative started in 2010, and has generated a lot of custom for small businesses.

David Cameron has voiced his support on Twitter, as President Obama did in the U.S. version last year - new Small Business Ambassador Karren Brady, as well as Skills and Enterprise Minister Matthew Hancock MP, Vince Cable MP, (plus a whole host of local councils and local MPs) are supporting the initiative too.

For more information and to find out how you can get involved, visit www.smallbusinesssaturdayuk.com

☼ Coombefield Veterinary Hospital

The Partners and Staff would like to wish all our Clients a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

CHOCOLATE poisoning is one of the most common emergency phone calls received by the hospital, particularly at this time of the year. The severity of poisoning depends principally on two things, obviously the amount of chocolate eaten but also the type of chocolate (i.e. milk or dark). The amount of theobromine (the toxic ingredient in chocolate) in milk and dark chocolate differs considerably. For example Dark 70% chocolate can often be lethal.

Chocolate is also toxic to other species for example cats, rodents, rabbits etc.

The foremost clinical effects seen in chocolate poisoning are vomiting and diarrhoea, which may often lead to severe dehydration. Theobromine can also cause some animals to become hyperactive. Muscular rigidity, tremors and convulsions may also be observed in some extreme cases.

If you suspect your pet has eaten a large quantity of chocolate you should contact us as soon as possible on 01297 630500.

Free Business Support

Businesses offered FREE access to experts for one day

LOCAL business advisors and experts are offering FREE advice sessions at a vibrant business event in Axminster on 6th December. Businesses in Axminster, the surrounds and their supply chains have a chance to get some free advice and network with other businesses. The FREE event is being held at the Methodist Hall in Axminster and you can turn up from 8.00am for one session or stay the whole day until 4.00pm. To book your place go to www.bipwestdevon.biz/seminars-and-workshops.html or contact the BIP on 0330 1000338 (freephone).

For businesses that prefer an early start, they can turn up at 8.00am and try their hand at "speednetworking" - a business networking version of speed-dating. A free breakfast bap and coffee is included to help ease with the thought of an early start. Throughout the day there will be guest speakers and a chance to book a business surgery session with the experts. Businesses can "drop in" throughout the day, stay for a half or a full day and there will be refreshments available.

"Experts" include: Chartered Accountants - Thomas Westcott, talking about Auto-Enrolment Pensions; Business Coach - Chris Menlove-Platt; General Business Support and Advice from the BIP and a Local Solicitors.

This event is free with the intention that as many people as possible can access this business support. It is designed to be practical and helpful, providing small local businesses with access to expert advice. We are really keen at BIP to make sure that lots of local businesses are made aware of the help and support that is out there for them, as sometimes it is difficult to know what is available." said Petra Davies, Business Advisor at the BIP. The support is part funded by the Making it Local Action Group (these European funds are managed by Defra, with Devon County Council as the accountable body) and other funders are East Devon District Council & BIP.

Attendees really value these types of events and we have had such positive feedback from previous sessions. It's not only the practical knowledge from workshops which businesses rate, but also the opportunities to network and share ideas with like-minded people, be inspired and be motivated. Sometimes when you work on your own and have to wear so many different hats, it's a relief to take the opportunity to step back and look at your business with a fresh set of eyes." Petra is keen to encourage as many local businesses as possible to take advantage of this chance to get some support for FREE.

Businesses can book their place or find out more by going to the BIP's website www.bipwestdevon.biz/seminars-and-workshops.html or contacting the BIP on 0330 1000338 (freephone).

Opera and ballet at The Gateway

Gift vouchers available now as the perfect Christmas gift

THE Gateway in Seaton will screen two fantastic shows this month; The Metropolitan Opera's Falstaff, and the Bolshoi Ballet's Sleeping Beauty.

An undisputed master of Falstaff, Music Director James Levine conducts Verdi's opera for the first time at the Met since 2005. Robert Carsen's production – the first new Met Falstaff since 1964 – is set in the English countryside in the mid-20th century.

Ambrogio Maestri (last season's Dulcamara in the Opening Night production of L'Elisir d'Amore) sings the title role of the brilliant and blustery Sir John Falstaff, opposite a marvellous ensemble that includes Angela Meade, Stephanie Blythe, Lisette Oropesa and Franco Vassallo. Falstaff is a co-production of the Metropolitan Opera; the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden; Teatro alla Scala, Milan; the Canadian Opera Company, Toronto; and De Nederlandse Opera, Amsterdam.

Featuring music by Tchaikovsky, and choreography from Yuri Grigorovich, with Svetlana Zakharova (Princess Aurora), David Hallberg (Prince Desiré), Bolshoi's Sleeping Beauty will be another unmissable performance.

Cursed at birth by the evil fairy Carabosse, Princess Aurora descends into a deep slumber on the day of her 16th birthday. Only the kiss of a prince will awaken her. Based on Charles Perrault's classic fairy tale, Sleeping Beauty has been hugely successful since its premiere in 1890. Marius Petipa's masterpiece is one of the most popular and accomplished choreographic works in the classical repertoire. The new version by Yuri Grigorovich will captivate fairy-tale lovers and the whole family during the Christmas season.

Falstaff will be screened on Tuesday, December 17th, with doors opening at 6pm for a 7pm start; and Sleeping Beauty will screen on Sunday, December 22nd, with doors open 3pm for a 4pm start. Tickets for each show cost £15 in advance or £17.50 on the door.

The Gateway are also offering the perfect stocking filler this Christmas, in the form of gift vouchers, available from the box office for £5, £10 and £20.

THE C.T. (Christians Together) Singers are giving a Carol Concert at Seaton Methodist Church on Saturday, December 7th 7pm.

As well as items sung by the choir there will be 'recitations' and a chance for the audience to join in with some well-known carols.

CT Singers have been together for two years and sing at Christmas and Easter, and sometimes at Pentecost. The choir members come from a variety of churches around the area, and as well as enjoying the singing many friendships have been made.

The conductor is Graham Eardley who has inspired the choir with his knowledge and enthusiasm.

The Concert is free, but there will be an opportunity to make a donation for The Barnabas Trust which helps persecuted Christians - should you wish to do so - and the donations will be aimed at helping Syrian Christians who face great danger at the moment.

There will be refreshments after the concert - do come along and have an enjoyable evening.

'At Home' Exhibition

AXMINSTER Arts are exhibiting works by Axminster Art Society and Dalwood Spinners throughout until January 4th. Axminster Arts Society presents an exhibition with the theme "At Home". Come and see how each artist has interpreted the subject and be prepared for some surprises! Dalwood spinners, a local craft group who create hand made gifts, give all of the proceeds from their sales to South West Children's Hospice. Crafts produced by other artisans are also on sale and could be suitable for Christmas gifts.

The exhibition takes place at Axminster Arts Café, The Old Courthouse, Church Street, EX13 5AQ. 01297 631455. Opening hours: Monday to Saturday, 9am-2pm.

Author to read from debut novel

JOIN Charmouth author Jane Hardy at the Axminster Arts Café at 3.30pm for a reading from her debut novel, The Main Man. Free tea and a selection of cakes - or 'Darren's Fancies' - will form an integral part of this event.

Described as 'a gripping tale of love, sex, arrogance and deceit', it focuses on the lives of a group of three teenagers. Their leader, Darren, is a narcissist completely devoid of empathy or feelings of guilt. He breaks the law and girls hearts in equal measure, leaving behind him a trail of misery and destruction. But is he entirely to blame, or is he just a product of his genes and upbringing? And will he finally get his comeuppance? Although the main characters are teenagers, the book contains material not principally aimed at the YA reader.

THE WELSH WIZARD WOWS!

BYRON Jones, the Welsh Wizard, entertained a large audience on Saturday, November 30th to a magical afternoon of music on Beer's mighty Wurlitzer. The oldest theatre organ in the UK is now in great shape and Byron's obvious enjoyment was matched by the audience's enjoyment of his expertise. Byron was happy to play many tunes requested by the audience, using the percussion sounds of the Wurlitzer to the full, and a medley of Christmas tunes was a grand finale to the 2013 season of shows.

Byron Jones, who started playing the organ as a young man in his local chapel in Wales, has achieved great international success over the years with countless radio and TV performances. He has played on most of the major theatre pipe organs including the famous Blackpool Tower Wurlitzer, but still gets great pleasure from playing at smaller venues like Beer.

The dedicated team of volunteers will be working during the winter months on further improvements to the organ and are delighted that it is being appreciated by a growing audience. For the modest sum of £10.00 a year, it is hoped that more folk will join the Friends of the Beer Wurlitzer - they will receive a quarterly newsletter and benefit from a reduced entry fee of £5.00 per show. Our Membership Officer (01308 425451) will be pleased to hear from you.

◆ The first show for 2014 will be on Saturday, 12 April, when John Mann, one of the South's top entertainers, will be welcomed to Beer. For further information please visit www.beerwurlitzer.org.uk.

Small Town Thinking is a Sweet release

Adam Sweet to launch debut album with Seaton gig

By BENJAMIN PARKER
ben.parker@pemedio.co.uk

UP-AND-COMING rock and blues singer-songwriter Adam Sweet is launching his debut album in Seaton later this month.

Small Town Thinking will be made available for general release for the first time during a special show at The Gateway, in Fore Street, Seaton, on Friday, December 20th.

The release of Small Town Thinking is the culmination of a year-long project, and the launch will be a chance to be amongst the first to hear the much-anticipated album.

Adam Sweet said: "I'm very proud of what we have achieved with this first album. I feel privileged to have worked with some great people on it, and I can't wait to get it out there now."

"Seaton Gateway is a fantastic venue that has really supported me in recent years, in a town I have been regularly performing in since I was 15 years old, so I'm really excited to be launching the album here."

For over a decade Adam Sweetm who grew up in Lyme Regis and attended Colyton

Grammar School, has been performing as a guitarist across the South West, and is already making his mark as a solo artist.

He has played several high-profile festivals, completed a successful tour of Scotland, and last year he was nominated for the 'Best Blues Act' prize at the South West Music Awards.

With Small Town Thinking, Sweet co-wrote the material with award-winning singer-songwriter Steve Black. It was recorded with producer Alan West, at NEO Music in Devon, and Thomm Jutz at his Nashville studio.

Kirstin Reynolds, co-founder NEO Music, said: "We are delighted with the response the album is receiving from industry insiders so far."

Adam shows real maturity and integrity as a performer and recording artist, and with plans in the pipeline for a tour next year,

Stags qualified lettings success

ANDREW Luxton MRICS FARLA, Partner in charge of Stags Residential Lettings Department is seen presenting ARLA certificates to members of staff who have recently taken and passed the technical award in Residential Letting and Property Management and have therefore become members of the Association of Residential Lettings Agents.

As a firm Andrew Luxton comments that, "We take pride in ensuring that the advice we provide to landlords and tenants is correct and is as upto date with the ever changing legislation. With increasing members of staff at Stags becoming members of ARLA, the only professional body that is solely concerned with the self regulation of Letting Agents we are actively able to promote the highest standards across our lettings department. We as a firm, have encouraged and supported staff to both study for and take the exam which of course we feel will be of benefit not only to the individual but also, to us with the continuing growth and development of the lettings department throughout the region. It is vital that landlords and tenants know that they are placing their trust in a professional, qualified letting agent that works within a robust code of practice to include protection of clients' money.

SERVICE*Eden Garden
Developments

EDEN Garden Developments make finding a contractor simple by providing for all clients' Garden Design, Construction &amp; Care requirements, large and small locally. The Design &amp; Build unit of A1 Environmental Services, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service.

Installing all types of Fencing, Gates and Decking, Walling and Patios, Eden offers a complete landscaping service including Lawns Horticulture and Aquatics, either as a package or in affordable stages.

A timely example, given the present gusty conditions, is fencing where this can either be repaired or replaced, depending upon condition and the budget available. This can be either post and panel, close board, post and rail or picket fencing and Eden also supply and fit gates (see insets). In fact "cost leadership" is at the forefront of the business whilst keeping quality and the principles of design paramount.

Business founder, designer and artisan craftsman Norman Brown holds an MSc. in Environmental Planning & Management and has contributed to books, periodicals and the gardening press. ## John's Motor Repairs Providing a professional repair service and quick state of the art Diagnostics

John's Motor Repairs in Sidmouth found their Automated Test Lane MOT Station to be a great success, being the very latest in MOT technology. This gives them a competitive edge with MOT testing and allows their fully qualified MOT testers to carry out your test efficiently in the best environment possible and to the highest standard. The MOT bay not only enables 'one man' MOT testing and reduces labour costs, but as it is fully digitized, the likelihood of errors, mistakes and omissions is reduced – this ensures that your vehicle is in a safe and roadworthy condition.

Also, John's Motor Repairs have recently set up a New Tyre Bay at their garage; enabling them to change and repair your tyres, check your balances and more. They also have a large stock of tyres available.

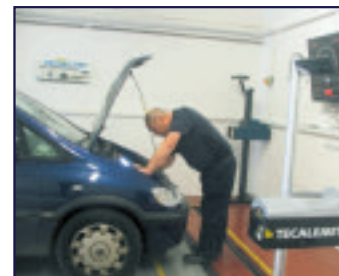

John's Motor Repairs is a friendly and customer focused garage offering you the highest quality service, providing a professional repair service and quick state of the art diagnostics for fault finding, and giving you the cost of any repairs before starting the job.

If you are looking for a reliable and trustworthy garage, then visit John's Motor Repairs! Whether you need a service, MOT, Diagnostics, or your vehicle needs mechanical repairs; they have both the expertise and facilities to take care of your vehicle.

Colson strike lifts improving Vikings Knox at the double as Seaton stun Saints - Walker brace for Beer

South-West Peninsula League (Div One east)

A FIRST-HALF strike from youngster Matt Colson was enough to earn Sidmouth Town a 1-0 win which saw them leap-frog over opponents Exeter University and up into 11th spot in the South-West Peninsula League Division One (east) table.

Sidmouth manager Paddy Thomas was impressed by his side, he said on the club website: "We played some decent football against a well organised Uni side.

"When questions were asked of our defence they showed that they were more than capable of coping. Dan Tavender back after a spell out was tireless in midfield, Andy Isaac lead the line superbly and Wes Tarr reminded us why he is held in such high regard within the club.

"Matt Colson has improved his game greatly, showing that if you train regularly, listen and learn from the experienced players then you reap the rewards, we are so pleased for him, he's a joy to manage."

Not such good news from Colyton Grammar School where Axminster Town went down 4-0 against title-chasers Stoke Gabriel.

Despite the defeat Ax player-manager Gary Macauley was encouraged by some of what he saw, he said: "We were first class in the opening 45 and matched them all over the park. But they scored right on half-time.

"Ben Turner had good chance to equalise after the break but from this opportunity they went up the other end and made it 2-0. "We then had Adam Downes sent-off and it became a bit 'backs-to-the-wall'. But I can't fault the effort against a good side who have only conceded two all season."

This weekend sees Axminster entertain Exeter University while Sidmouth head off to face Newton Abbot Spurs.

Devon & Exeter League Match report

AXMOUTH UTD 3 LORDS XI 2 WITHOUT a win in their last three games and having lost their unbeaten record in last week's heavy loss Axmouth were facing the prospect of losing top spot had 2nd placed visiting Lords XI secured victory at Bosshill Cross.

The home side were in no mood to relinquish the summit just yet and started strongly in a game played in good spirit with both sides decent in possession and working hard when not.

Axmouth were the more dominant of the two and the Lords XI could hardly have believed their luck when gifted the opening goal following a stray pass leaving the striker an empty net to slot home. The Axes responded in fine style when George Harwood headed home from close range and the sides went in 1-1 at the break.

Axmouth stormed out in the second half and asserted their Christian Burridge finished low into the far corner within a few minutes of the re-start. Burridge then turned provider as he set up Jake Dack to fire the third as they took full control.

The visitors showed great determination to get back onto the game and forced two fine saves from Keeper Brad Cross before finally breaching the home defence with two minutes left but it was too little too late as Axmouth ended the deserved winners 3-2.

"We were back to near our best today," said Axmouth Manager Laurie Forino, "The lads responded well to last week's defeat and did all I asked of them which was a great reaction."

ROUND-UP

Premier champions FENITON suffered their first league or cup defeat since March beaten 2-1 at home by HATHERLEIGH TOWN, a run going back 20 matches. Hatherleigh, who finished Premier runners up despite winning at Feniton last year too, came from behind with two stunning Luke Reynolds strikes after Charlie Selley had given Fenny a deserved half-time lead with a penalty.

ST MARTINS had their 100 percent record blown away by SEATON TOWN who also won 2-1. Two early strikes by Pete Knox put Seaton in the driving seat, both teams then missed good chances, but Saints' only success came with a late Darren Bingham penalty.

Both results were delight for Premier leaders NEWTOWN who despatched THORVERTON 4-0, but it was not a cakewalk. Dale O'Donoghue, Corey O'Donoghue, Ben Howard and Kyle Hall scored for Newtown who currently are in great form.

HEAVITREE UNITED finally have their first win. The Wingfield Park team beat WILLAND ROVERS 5-2 with goals from Tariq El-Zahri 2, Matt Lyneley, Luke Nicholls and Dan Gill. It was also a great day for Shawn King playing his last Premier match after 14 years with the club.

CLYST VALLEY managed to keep Heavitree on the bottom rung with a creditable 0-0 draw against the UNIVERSITY.

CHARD TOWN were far too good for visiting TOPSHAM TOWN winning 5-0 at Zembard Lane, while former Aston Villa pro and current BEER ALBION manager Richard Walker scored both goals in their 2-1 win at BUDLEIGH SALTERTON.

Danny Bailey was TIVERTON TOWN'S scorer in their midweek 1-0 win at CHARD, the only match Tivvy have played in November.

Division One leaders ELMORE overcame a strong start from hosts EAST BUDLEIGH before coming out 4-1 winners. Two goal Jordan Copp, Kevin Mills and man of the match Adam Westbrook scored for the eagles.

SIDBURY UNITED regained their winning ways but they had to work hard to better CULLOMPTON RANGERS 2-0.

BOW AAC routed TIPTON ST JOHN 8-1 with Dean Jones getting a hat-trick. Singles came from Paul Reed, Pete Steer, Kieran Stone, Simon Wynne and Alex Bowden.

WITHERIDGE have found their shooting boots beating BICKLEIGH 5-1 with Tom Williams notching four. Jamie Giffard also scored.

BEACON KNIGHTS hammered a gallant NEWTON POPPLEFORD 9-1, but HEAVITREE UNITED put up a brave effort at WELLINGTON TOWN before succumbing 2-1. Richard Phillips was the Heavitree scorer.

EXMOUTH AMATEURS slipped to a 1-0 defeat at home to the UNIVERSITY. HONITON TOWN remain six points clear as Second Division leaders after winning 2-0 at PINHOE.

Nearest challengers DOLPHIN were 3-0 winners against LYMPTONE with Darren Pattinson, Jimmy Lee-Shaw and Ben Murby scoring.

DAWLISH UNITED hit a nap hand at CLYST VALLEY and pull further clear of HALWILL who were surprised 2-1 at CULM UNITED. TOPSHAM TOWN and CREDITON UNITED shared a 3-3 draw, Fraser, Mirek and Collins scoring for the visitors, while WESTEXSE ROVERS and NEWTON ST CYRES also drew 1-1 with Lee Woodman again the Westexse scorer.

Ax ladies' fine form continues

AXMINSTER

with David Harris

THE men had their first win of the season in the County Over 60's League when they defeated Sidmouth (82-73) with wins for the home rink of Roger Legg, Frank Bridge, Doug Looskan, and Paul Moffitt (25-15) and the away rinks of David Harris, Brian Cursley, Norman Denslow, and John Gough (22-8) and Philip Stephens, Bob Sherborne, Eric Skeemer, and Charlie Barber (19-17).

The Ladies continued their excellent Season in the County Foxlands League with a 77-40 win against Budleigh.

Both home rinks won well - Joan Quick, Diana Courtenay-Smith, Pat Whitworth, and Judith Moffitt (28-12) and Brenda Edwards, Jean Kesterton, Ann Clayton, and Margaret Crompton (27-12) while the away rink of Phil White, Alison Glyde, Sheila Martin, and Janet Parsons also won well (22-16).

Unfortunately Budleigh were unable to field a fourth rink.

In the mixed friendlies we have had a bad run although all three matches have been closely fought encounters!

First we lost 53-61 at home to Ottery St Mary with solitary winners of Margaret Brown, John Hill, Ann Clayton, and Brian Clark (28-15) before losing 46-58 at Taunton Deane with a winning rink of Margaret Brown, Alan Foster, Jean Kesterton, and Bob Sherborne who came from behind to win on the last end.

In our last game we lost by just one shot at home to Madeira (54-55) despite winning on two of the three rinks played!

Our successful 'fours' were Morrison Brown, Brenda Raistrick, Jean Kesterton, and Brian Clark (17-15) and Daphne Ryan, Lilian Lovatt, David Harris, and Janet Parsons (20-19) - quite some match!

The Ladies enjoyed an excellent 49-30 win in their friendly game away at Budleigh with wins on both rinks - Betty Mitchell, Jean Kesterton, Pat Whitmore, and Margaret Crompton (23-11) and Joan Quick, Alison Glyde, Ann Clayton, and Judith Moffitt (26-19).

Finally the Gents came out on top 30-19 in their annual game with their Lady counterparts played in great spirit with the winning Gents teams being; John Hill, Dave Emmings, David Harris, and Brian Clark (17-9) and Morrison Brown, Jack Wakeley, Derek Pheby, and Les Clark (13-10) - Morrison particularly enjoyed this victory playing against his dear wife Margaret!

HONITON

with Tony Broughton

A GOOD start to the week when a mixed side travelled to the Exmouth, Madeira Club and beat them by 71-43 shots.

This is a good result as Madeira usually field a very strong side against Honiton, who won two and drew one.

Our top rink that day was Sharon Kenny, David Tooley, Paul Gadd and Mike Critchley at 33-9.

The other winning rink was Doug Warburton, Les Crooke, Linda Gadd and Peter Baker 26-16 and Richard Chapple, Joan Evans, David Evans and Bill Nichols were 18 all.

Wednesday, and another good win against a Dunkeswell side this time by 84-58.

Honiton won two rinks and Dunkeswell won two, our top scoring rink being Tony Williams, Paul Clarke, Dave Roberts and Ken Clarke at 32-13. Honiton's other winning rink was Daphne Courtney, Maureen Parsons, Janice Sharman and Ted Cox at 22-10.

The last friendly match of the week three Men's triples travelled to Sidmouth.

The usual tight game ensued with only a shot plus or minus up until Tea at nine ends then Honiton seemed to lose the plot.

Bill Nichols, an ex-Sidmouth bowler skipped Honiton's only winning rink with Richard Chapple and Steve Coles at 19-12.

Tony Young M.B.E, Tony Broughton and Mike Critchley had a tight match but Sidmouth skip Ed Backhouse always seemed to get one in and this rink lost 17-14.

Ken Clarke got some of his own medicine in this match losing 22-7, but a great match was enjoyed by all.

The ladies were once more in Foxlands action but this season it just will not go their way.

Playing Exeter's, Exonia Club they won one and lost one both at home and away.

This has been the pattern throughout the season and unfortunately came out second again with only four points.

The teams were, at home; Lynda Dommett, Dulcie Broughton, Joan Heard and Sue Evans 20-16. Jean Mitchell, Ann Hillyear, Pearl Hackwood and Carole Binmore 15-26.

Away; Berry Maynard, Anne Brown, Rita Barwick and Brenda Harris 28-18. Sally Spreadbury, Anne Newman, Carol Smith and Julie Grant 12-25.

It's particularly good to see Richard Chapple, Doug Warburton, Tony Williams, Daphne Courtney all new members are now advanced enough to be joining in the friendly matches and club rollups, not only that they are in the winning rinks, well done.

They are new members joining us after visiting on our Open Day in September. In total we had 19 join and one or two more are still in the pipeline.

If you are interested in playing bowls you will be warmly welcomed. See our website, honitonbowlingclub.co.uk for details.

Cox strike clinches win

Honiton Hornets 1 Sidmouth & Ottery 2nds 0 HONITON entertained Sidmouth and Ottery 2nds who currently lie two places above them in Petroc League 1 at the weekend.

In their last few matches, Honiton have been conceding some early goals and consequently made things difficult for themselves.

Training had paid off however and this week the team were up to speed from the starting whistle and had the majority of the early chances on goal with Jean Herniman and Lydia Cox both hitting the post in the first-half of the match.

Honiton were missing their usual central midfield players this week and so Katrina Tucker stepped into the central position and had a great game putting lots of pressure on the visitors defence.

With no score at half-time, the hosts kept up the attack in the second-half with great confidence that a goal would come.

Honiton continued to put pressure on the Ottery defence and when they were unable to put the ball into the goal, Ottery weren't able to clear the ball far as Honiton's defence of Becky Bond, Sami Williams and Emily Weigersma stepped in front of their opponents to regain the ball quickly and feed the attackers.

In the end Honiton's goal came through a well intercepted Ottery pass from Becky Hammett who moved the ball swiftly on to Jean Herniman who in turn shifted the ball early into the centre of the pitch.

The final pass into the circle found Lydia Cox who managed to wriggle through the defence and slice the ball behind the goalkeeper and into the net.

Ottery had their chances during the match but Sue Stone was solid in goal and was rewarded with a clean sheet.

Player of the match was Katrina Tucker with Lydia Cox and Becky Hammett also featuring highly in the voting.

martial arts target tae kwon do

Local students pass with flying colours

The Target TAGB Tae Kwon-Do group of schools, based in various East Devon and West Dorset towns and villages, are celebrating a fantastic belt grading, in which 100 per cent of the students they entered passed, with several achieving extremely good results.

The students were put through their paces by Master Michael Dew, 8th dan black belt, grading examiner and vice chairman of the Tae Kwon-Do Association of Great Britain (TAGB), which has been celebrating its 30th anniversary this year, having been formed in August 1983 and, over the course of the following week, all 40 students who had entered were told by their instructors that they had successfully passed, but some did more than just pass.

New yellow belts Iain Cowper and Tom Staple (Bridport), George Cable (Axminster) and Rudi Tobin (Sidmouth), all received the superior standard Plus Pass.

A Passes, the highest level of pass, went to Kyle Hughes of Axminster, Nathan Halkes-Wellstead of Chardmouth, and to Jack Jenkins, Connor Preston and Jamie Wyant, all of Sidmouth.

Kyle's A pass was particularly exceptional, as it is quite rare for anyone to achieve this at the highest and most difficult of the colour belt gradings.

He is now a 1st kup, which means his next grading will involve trips to Weston-super-Mare and Bristol to prepare for the rigorous black belt examination, for which he will be training hard during 2014.

Mr Gerry Waugh, instructor of Axminster, Chardmouth and Sidmouth schools, said: "I am delighted with the results. Everyone put in a lot of effort and worked hard to put on a really good standard - I am proud of them all!"

His students got all six of the A Passes, the three grading awards (for Kyle, Nathan and Jack, respectively) and two of the Plus Passes, with the other two going to students of the Bridport school, taught by Miss Chloe Richards. All students also passed at Colyton, taught by Mr Daren Sainsbury.

It was also a special grading for Mr

Waugh, as his wife, Vanessa, after watching her husband and son from the sidelines at tae kwon-do classes for more than ten years, had finally joined in with classes recently and, despite ankle problems, also passed her first ever grading.

For details of the classes available in Axminster, Bridport, Chardmouth, Colyton or Sidmouth, go to <http://targettagb.co.uk/html/training.html> or call 01297 639830.

■ TALENTED: Some of the Target TAGB students, wearing casual clothing for the last training session before the grading in order to keep their uniforms looking their best for the big event.

■ UPS AND DOWNS: Axminster Town striker Adam Downes wins this aerial battle in Saturday's game with Stoke Gabriel. But the experienced front man was later red-carded as the Tigers went down 4-0.
